1. This report covers the meeting with [redacted] of Procurement and myself on 10 July 1952 at [redacted] office. 25X1

2. I was informed by [redacted] that the General Counsel's letter of 28 June (a copy which you received) did not approve any negotiations to purchase materials for Agency use from [redacted].

3. I explained to [redacted] the operation of the mobile audio-visual device and how it differed from other units presently on the market.

4. It was suggested by the Procurement representatives that the specifications of the mobile audio-visual device required by OTR be drawn up and forwarded to that office for a determination of the availability of such equipment.

5. It was also suggested that the memorandum indicate that [redacted] has available a pilot model meeting these specifications which cannot be procured by the Agency for legal reasons.

6. [redacted] would then assign a person from Procurement to go with me to the Office of Communications and see whether or not their sources of supply would help to fulfill our needs and requirements without entangling the Agency in any patent rights or disputes.

7. In accordance with your verbal instructions of 10 July I am attaching a memorandum to Procurement and Supply for Col. Baird's signature.
